

RVVR Sir Oddy (AQHA)
2008 Bay Sabino Gelding

Ranch Horse: stout and quiet

Oddy is just a two year old gelding – and look at him! If you are looking for a Rope Horse that is as reliable as a Swiss Clock you found him right here! This guy has tons of body and bone and is as level headed as they come. With his shiny dark bay color and his one bright blue eye you will get noticed if you take him down the road or to a show. This guy can check cattle all day long and then take your kids safely for a trail ride.

He has a great conformation with an exceptional nice neck for this stout of a horse. He is what a Foundation Horse should be: built like in the old days and nicely minded!

His full brother (2007) is broke to ride and just one great ranch horse to have around! He is a reliable, gentle giant that can be ridden bareback through the bush. His full brother (2009), a buttermilk dun stallion is just as stout and level headed as his brothers!

RVVR Orbe Del Luno - yearling (full brother)

Oddy is foundation bred with Ka Cee Smoker on top, an own son of Mills Dark Smoke that sired many show winners and excellent working ranch horses. Smoker's full brother was IBHA World Reserve Champion Stallion! He has Red McCue by Joe Reed on the bottom of his papers. He has a truly awesome Foundation Pedigree! Half sblings out of his dam won money with the NCHA and are well known as good Team Penning Horses!

Oddy is a ranch horse prospect that sure can excel at roping events! He is an honest horse that will do anything for you! He loves to be around people and always comes over to check out what's going on.

There could be said so many good things about this beautiful gelding and at the end of the day, at the end of each end every day you spent with him you will think: "He is just a good horse!"
